

WHY EGAN IS A DELINQUENT.

Another Chapter in the Controversy Given to the Public.

A FORMAL COMPLAINT IGNORED.

He Charges the Bishop With Acting in a Manner Devoid of Gentleness, Decorum and Christian Feeling.

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMAHA BEE, 1029 P STREET.

In regard to the controversy between Mr. Egan and Rev. Bishop Bonnem, culminating in an injunction suit against the latter, the former was seen at this office today. In reply to an inquiry as to the cause of the present proceedings, Mr. Egan stated that the representative of the following copy of a letter sent by him to Rev. M. A. Kennedy, which explains itself:

LINCOLN, Neb., July 31, 1888.—Dear Sir: I have carefully considered the application which you conveyed to me on Thursday last from Rev. Bishop Bonnem on a payment on account of my subscription of $500 towards the additional church, and have to say, that as a member of the congregation, I consider I am entitled to some rights. I feel that I am entitled to at least the ordinary courtesy from one gentleman to another, and I feel that you have made a formal complaint against one of the clerical men of the parish I am entitled to have that complaint listened to, investigated and decided upon.

Very Reverend Bishop Bonnem, when he refused to see Mr. Sutton and me (on the occasion of my visit to make formal complaint against Rev. Mr. Dunphy) until the resolutions passed at the National League meeting the previous day in regard to the parish, I would be withdrawn, and I feel that you have ignored my complaint against Rev. Mr. Dunphy after such complaint was made by letter when he deliberately omitted the courtesy of a reply to my letter and when he authorized or permitted his secretary, Rev. Mr. Dunphy, over the signature of "The Bishop," to ignore my complaint through the public press as a "political trickster," has acted towards the Irish National League, towards Mr. Sutton, but more especially towards me, in a manner devoid of gentlemanly decorum and Christian feeling. When Very Rev. Bishop Bonnem makes honorable and Christian friends for this action on his part, and when I am prepared to show as unwarranted by any single act or word of mine—and when he recognizes and acknowledges my right by taking cognizance of and dealing upon my formal complaint against Rev. Mr. Dunphy, then I will at once and with pleasure retract the amount of my subscription.

Meantime I must respectfully demand that my name be at once removed from the list of delinquent subscribers which is displayed at the church door. Your very faithfully, REV. M. A. KENNEDY, PATRICK EGAN.

Mr. Egan stated that he subsequently met Rev. Mr. Kennedy and ascertained from him that he had not yet received the letter from Bishop Bonnem, who declined to make any amendments and who stated that he would continue to ignore Mr. Egan's name and that he would continue to ignore the injunction proceedings.

"What have you got to say to Rev. Mr. Dunphy's statement in regard to the resolution passed at the meeting of the Land League, at which the resolutions condemnatory of the parish were passed?"

"Mr. Dunphy is quite right in his statement that it was he and not Bishop Bonnem who attended that meeting, and it is so set forth in the petition. I may say right here that it is he and not Bishop Bonnem who is at the bottom of all the trouble that is brewing in the congregation. The resolution in question was framed and passed by Mr. Sutton at the suggestion of Mr. John Fitzgerald and was in substance about the same as the resolutions subsequently passed by the Irish Catholic members of the parish in Dublin, and of which resolutions Archbishop Walsh, even after the last encyclical letter of the pope, expressed his hearty approval."

"Had nothing to do, either directly or indirectly, with framing or introducing the resolutions, and had not even spoken in support of, or expressed my approval of, them when this young man, Mr. Dunphy, stood up in the meeting, attributed to me the authorship of the resolutions and made upon me a most unwarrantable and indecent personal attack—an attack which I claim to have amounted to a public scandal. Next day I called upon the bishop to make complaint about this attack, and he, without my knowledge of the circumstances except such version as he had received from Mr. Dunphy, refused to see me, and when I wrote him he did not deign to answer my letter."

"As usual, this wrong step on the part of the bishop has led to other wrongs. I have quarrel with Bishop Bonnem or his secretary except such as they forced upon me. Upon the other hand I have no desire to quarrel with the promoter of the parish, and for their personal friendship, I want 'peace with honor,' but if they want to force a petty war upon me they will find me a fighter. I did not begin this thing, and I do not intend to end it."

"No, sir, Bishop Bonnem has no such power. I have no quarrel with the church or its doctrines. I am as good a Catholic as Bishop Bonnem, and I believe a little bit better, because I know I have done a wrong, I would have the moral courage to apologize for it."

WARD POLITICS IN LINCOLN.

The ward politics of the Fifth ward met in caucus last evening at 8 o'clock at the church on South Eleventh street. Hon. M. B. Cheney presided at the meeting. Resolutions were adopted declaring for William Leese for attorney general. The fact is significant. It leaves the railroad crowd of that ward out in the cold. John H. Clark was denied a place on the delegate ticket, and a resolution was passed declaring against the issuance of proxies to the county convention. Mr. John R. Clark cannot even obtain a seat at the coming state convention, according to the fact of the caucus. It was a damp evening for the Burlington crowd. Mr. Henderson also occupied a seat in the rear, while matters look a little hopeful for Mr. Carter.

The First and Second wards also endorsed Attorney General Leese. So goes the battle. Hon. J. L. Caldwell is urged as a candidate for the legislature by the republicans of the Second ward. His record made two years ago while in the house is pronounced good and upon it he seeks re-nomination and election. Any attempt to down Mr. Leese is promptly buried out of sight and he will go before the state convention with the solid vote of Lancaster county.

ON TRIAL FOR ARSON.

At 6 o'clock last evening William Neill, Edward Morris and A. J. Morgan came on trial for setting the Parks barn on fire, and while it was burning robbed the boys of the fire department, a report of which was made in this Bee at the time. These three were arrested on suspicion of having committed the crime, but the evidence was not sufficient to hold them, and they were released. Other parties are under surveillance but no further arrests will be made unless the proof in hand is sufficient to make a very strong case and gives assurance that conviction will follow.

CITY NEWS AND NOTES.

Hon. Broad Slaughter, of Pullerton, is in the city. He says that Hon. McKeljohn is a candidate for lieutenant governor, reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

Attorney General Leese returned from a visit to Seward last evening, where he attended the funeral services of Allison H. Edwards, an old and highly esteemed citizen of that city, who died of typhoid fever.

Seven sets of school books were registered with the secretary of state this morning, aggregating $4,190. From Nicholas, Dundy, Box Butte, Fillmore, Hall and Phelps counties, issued for building and school furnishing purposes.

Bessie Mullan, Philip Carr and John E. Hagarth were prepared for burial by Undertaker Heaton and laid in the church yard today. They were children from one to three years of age. The mortality has been very great among the children of Lincoln during the past few days.

Walter Carmack recovered his horse yesterday which was stolen last May. The horse was found, recognized and identified in a livery stable at Eldorado, Kan., where it was left by an unknown person a few days ago. Mr. Carmack is elated over the recovery of his horse, but regrets his inability to capture the thief.
